

SLPPOA Email Emergency and Announcement Service

In an effort to keep SLPPOA Members informed, we are initiating an email distribution service. This service will include emergency notifications and other pertinent information regarding current events that could affect all members.

This email service will be managed by an appointed board member(s) and the list will not be shared with any persons or organizations. You can choose to unsubscribe at any time.

If you desire to be added to our communication list (or unsubscribe from it), please send your email contact information to: email@slppoa.org

Direct replies to this service are not possible. If you would like to comment on any email sent via this service please address your Reply directly to the appropriate Board Member\(s\). The SLPPOA Blog is available if you prefer an open Forum.